About the directory

The directory has been compiled by Bradford Area Occupational Health and Safety Forum. The information was obtained through a survey that was sent out to various organisations offering occupational health and safety services in the Bradford district. The listing of an organisation in this directory is not an endorsement from the Forum as to its credentials or performance.

If your service is not included, or a service that you think should be added, please send details to the Forum and when the directory is next updated it can be included. If any details in this directory are incorrect, please let us know.

Thanks. Email: admin@baohsf.org.uk Tel: 01535 691049.
